CONTENTS.

ABSORPTION BANDS (The) of the compounds of the rare earths, their modification by a magnetic field, and the magnetic rotation of the plane of polarisation at very low temperatures. 264.

ACID (Optical resolution of chlorobromoacetic). 998.

ACIDS (On the spreading of fatty), fats and proteins. 1262.

ADRENALIN (The balance in radio-physiological equilibria shifted by l.) towards the alpha-side, and by d. adrenalin towards the beta-side. 93.

AFTER-IMAGES (On) and contrast in coloured light. 878.

AGT (F. P. G. A. J. VAN), Miss A. F. J. JANSEN and W. H. KEESOM. The thermal expansion of copper between $+101^{\circ}$ C. and -253° C. 886.

ALGEBRAISCHES KRITERIUM v. KRITERIUM (ALGEBRAISCHES).

AMPHIOXUS (On the temporary presence of the primary mouth-opening of the larva of), and the occurrence of three postoral papillae, which are probably homologous with those of the larva of Ascidians. 286.

ANALYSIS SITUS (On the foundations of combinatory). I. Definitions and elementary theorems. 611. II. Theorems on sets of elements. 627.

Anatomy. C. J. VAN DER HORST: "The cerebellum of fishes. 2. The cerebellum of Megalops cyprinoides (Brouss.) and its connections". 44.

— C. U. ARIËNS KAPPERS: "The relation of the cerebellum weight to the total brain-weight in human races and in some animals". 129.

— J. FAUL: "The comparative ontogenetic development of the corpus striatum in reptiles". 150.

— J. W. VAN WIJHE: "On the temporary presence of the primary mouth-opening in the larva of amphioxus, and the occurrence of three postoral papillae, which are probably homologous with those of the larva of Ascidians". 286.

— L. BOLK: "On the problem of anthropogenesis". 465.

— W. A. MIJSBERG: "On the development of the form of the vertebral spines in mammals, especially in man". 603.

— J. FAUL: "The ontogenetic development of the claustrum in mammals". 642.

ANDREWS (DONALD H.). The distribution of thermal energy in organic molecules. 744.

ANGOLA (Concerning the occurrence of quaternary corals in). 843.

ANTI-BERI-BERI VITAMIN. v. VITAMIN.

ANTHROPOGENESIS (On the problem of). 465.

ARACHNIDA (On a new form of breathing regulation (regulation of diffusion) in insects and). 492.

ARIËNS KAPPERS (C. U.) v. KAPPERS (C. U. ARIËNS).

- ASCIDIANS (On the temporary presence of the primary mouth-opening of the larva of Amphioxus, and the occurrence of three postoral papillae, which are probably homologous with those of the larva of). 286.
- Astronomy. J. VAN DER BILT, M. G. J. MINNAERT, W. J. H. MOLL and A. PANNEKOEK: "Report on the expedition to Sumatra for observing the total solar eclipse of 1926 Jan. 14th." 1151.
- and Geophysics. A. PANNEKOEK: "Ionisation equilibrium in stellar atmospheres and in the earth's atmosphere". 1165.
- ATMOSPHERES (Ionisation equilibrium in stellar) and in the earth's atmosphere. 1165.
- ATOMISM (Prolegomena to a theoretical). 899.
- AVENA (Concerning the difference in sensibility of the tip and base of) to light. 185.
- (Phototropical curvatures of seedlings of) which appear when reaction of the distal side is excluded. 1118.
- AVENA SATIVA (Concerning the sensibility of decapitated coleoptiles of) for light and gravitation. 1113.
- BACILLUS DANICUS v. Danicus.
- BACKER (H. J.) and H. W. MOOK. Optical resolution of chlorobromoacetic acid. 998.
- BACTERIOPHAGUS (On the disinfection of the) of Bacillus Danicus. 337.
- BARENNE (J. G. DUSSER DE) and G. C. E. BURGER. The method for graphic determination of the total gaseous exchange in man during muscular activity. 1075.
- BARRAU (J. A.). On a function which in any interval assumes any value a non-enumerable number of times, and on a function representing a rectifiable curve which in any interval is non-differentiable a non-enumerable number of times. 989.
- BECQUEREL (J.), H. KAMERLINGH ONNES and W. J. DE HAAS. The absorption bands of the compounds of the rare earths, their modification by a magnetic field, and the magnetic rotation of the plane of polarisation at very low temperatures. 264.
- BENZENE (On the action of dibenzoylperoxide on) at low temperatures in the presence of anhydrous metal chlorides. (Contribution to the knowledge of catalytic phenomena). 598.
- BENZOPHENONE (On crystalforms of derivatives of ethoxy — and trimethyl —). 410.
- BERGMAN (RUD.). On the development of the Purkinje-cells in connection with the problem of localisation in the cerebellar cortex. 276.
- BILINEAR SYSTEM (On the) of ∞^3 line elements of space. 1041.
- BILT (J. VAN DER), M. G. J. MINNAERT, W. J. H. MOLL and A. PANNEKOEK. Report on the expedition to Sumatra for observing the total solar eclipse of 1926 Jan. 14th. 1151.
- BIMOLECULAR LAYERS (On) of lipoids on the chromocytes of the blood. 314.
- Biochemistry. E. GORTER, M. D. and F. GRENDL: "On bimolecular layers of lipoids on the chromocytes of the blood". 314.
- E. GORTER: "M. D. and F. GRENDL: "On the spreading of the different lipoids from chromocytes of different animals". 318.
- A. J. KLUYVER and A. P. STRUYK: "The function of phosphates in the dissimilation of the hexoses". 322.
- E. GORTER and F. GRENDL: "The spreading of oxy-hemoglobin". 371.
- E. GORTER and F. GRENDL: "On the spreading of fatty acids, fats and proteins". 1262.
- BISECANTS (A representation of the) of a rational twisted curve on a field of points. 664.

- BLAAUW (A. H.). Rapid flowering of Darwin-tulips. I. 1343.
- Miss I. LUYTEN and Miss G. JOUSTRA. The results of the temperature-treatment in summer for the Darwin-tulip (Second part). 113.
 - and R. MULDER. The results of the temperature-treatment in summer for the Darwin-tulip. (Third part). 199.
- BLOOD (On bimolecular layers of lipoids on the chromocytes of the). 314.
- BÖESEKEN (J.) and A. F. A. REYNHART. On the action of dibenzoylperoxide on benzene at low temperatures in the presence of anhydrous metal chlorides. (Contribution to the knowledge of catalytic phenomena). 598.
- BOLK (L.). On the problem of anthropogenesis. 465.
- BONES (On the mineral component of). 870.
- BORON-NITRIDE (Some remarks on the crystalform of) and on the eventual ambiguity in the analysis of powder-spectrograms. 1218.
- BOSCHMA (H.). On the food of reef-corals. 993.
- Botany. Miss I. LUYTEN, Miss G. JOUSTRA and A. H. BLAAUW: "The results of the temperature-treatment in summer for the Darwin-tulip". (Second part). 113.
- F. J. M. OFFERIJNS: "On the occurrence of striped and totally red coloured inflorescences on the same plant with Dahlia „Helvetica". 172.
 - F. W. WENT: "Concerning the difference in sensibility of the tip and base of Avena to light". 185.
 - F. A. F. C. WENT: "Latex as a constituent of the cell-sap". 192.
 - R. MULDER and A. H. BLAAUW: "The results of the temperature-treatment in summer for the Darwin-tulip". (third part). 199.
 - G. BROUWER: "On the periodical movements of the primary leaves of Canavalia ensiformis. D.C." 515.
 - J. A. HONING: "The heredity of the need of light for germination in tobacco-seeds". 823.
 - J. M. JANSE: "On new phenomena caused by irritation of roots". 834.
 - IDA LUYTEN: "Vegetative cultivation of hippeastrum". First part. 917.
 - TH. WEEVERS: "Concerning the function of caffein in the metabolism of Paullinia cupana". 1048.
 - H. E. DOLK: "Concerning the sensibility of decapitated coleoptiles of Avena sativa for light and gravitation". 1113.
 - H. RAMAER: "Phototropical curvatures of seedlings of Avena which appear when reaction of the distal side is excluded". 1118.
 - A. H. BLAAUW: "Rapid flowering of Darwin-tulips". I. 1343.
- BRAIN-WEIGHT (The relation of the cerebellum weight to the total) in human races and in some animals. 129.
- BREATHING REGULATION (On a new form of) (regulation of diffusion) in insects and Arachnida. 492.
- BRINKMAN (R.) and F. J. J. BUYTENDIJK. On the reaction course of physiological buffermixtures, examined by direct registration of the P_H changes. 816.
